Each year IHG (Intercontinental Hotel Group) spends a week acknowledging the dedication and passion of colleagues across the globe, celebrating all the dedicated teams who deliver extraordinary service every day.

Celebrate Service Week was created to say a great big 'thank you' to all our team members who go above and beyond to deliver true hospitality for everyone and for providing great service day in and day out.

Holiday Inn Aruba fully embraced the Celebrate Service Week by recognizing and celebrating team members with various treats and activities!

Ronella Croes CEO
ARUBA TOURISM AUTHORITY

Dear Visitor,

Welcome to the One happy island or as we say in Papiamentu - Bon bini!

On behalf of the Aruba Tourism Authority, we thank you for choosing Aruba as your vacation destination. We, at the ATA, are very proud of the remarkable tourism recovery Aruba has seen over the last two years. This recovery has been possible by countless local stakeholders, the local community, and all the wonderful visitors to the island, such as yourself.

As a destination, we are embracing the High-Value, Low-Impact tourism model.

Aruba will continue focusing on the economic contribution of the tourism sector, the quality of the visitor experience, environmental protection and conservation, and our residents' quality of life.

For our part, the Aruba Tourism Authority, through different initiatives, will highlight the importance of our natural resources, our well-known hospitality, and the safety and security of our visitors which they have grown accustomed to.

While you are visiting Aruba, we encourage you to go out, explore and enjoy all that the island has to offer!

Dear Visitor,

I would like to give you a warm welcome to our One Happy Island Aruba.

It is an honor that you choose our little haven as your vacation destination and that is why we do our best to accommodate you as comfortably as possible to experience the best our island has to offer. As the Minister of Tourism, my focus is to provide our visitors with excellence and quality, offering a one-of-a-kind and unforgettable visit.

The world is quickly changing and as we have been taught, working towards a more sustainable future is the only way forward. Therefore, we are focusing on the preservation of our flora and fauna, cultural heritage and eco-friendly activities for everyone to enjoy.

Aruba may be a small island but has so many wonders to offer, only to mention a few, my personal favorite highlights of Aruba are the Arikok National Park, Aruba's Lighthouse, and San Nicolaas district with their art murals, bohemian cafés and beautiful beaches.

My compromise with Aruba is to uphold our tourism to the highest of standards while preserving the natural resources that we have been gifted by our planet. I hope that when you are in Aruba, you enjoy yourself while taking care of our beautiful paradise and feel as a part of our family. Remember that we will always await you with open arms and this is your home away from home.

Your Excellence,

Mr. Danguillaume Oduber

Caribbean's No. 1 hotel for romance keeps the stork busy as couples become families, stories prompt the launch of BucutiBabies

Beckham

Myla

Isabella

Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, Aruba may be adults only, however, for a growing number of couples, the resort is learning that nine months after their visit, they are being paid a visit of a bundle of joy. To celebrate, Bucuti & Tara has launched #BucutiBabies and recently reached out to past guests to see who have added to their family since their visit. The replies are pouring in from around the world with each photo accompanying special, loving stories resulting from their honeymoons and vacations at Tripadvisor's No. 1 Hotel for Romance in the Caribbean.

Beaming with joy "As Tripadvisor's No. 1 Hotel for Romance in the Caribbean for the seventh straight year, Bucuti & Tara knows exactly how to care for couples. With our focus on being adults-only, it was only recently that we started to learn that there were resulting Bucuti Babies as we now call them, born around nine months after their parents' romantic vacation here," shares Ewald Biemans, Owner/CEO of Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, Aruba. "It has been so touching seeing their beautiful pictures and stories and realizing how Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort has become such a special place for many."

Bucuti & Tara delightedly shares some of these special stories with the permission of the contributors:

Meet Beckham
"My husband and I were married on August 8, 2021 in our US-home state of Maryland and stayed at Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort from August 15-20 for our honeymoon. We enjoyed everything and each other. Everything was perfect. When we got home, we excitedly told our family and friends that we couldn't wait to return for our first wedding anniversary. However, a few weeks later, we found out we were pregnant with our first baby with a due date May 7, 2022. Our Bucuti baby Beckham came into the world on April 28, 2022, and we are so in love with our beautiful son! Thank you for this special honeymoon," shares Erika Howard.

Meet Myla
"Our story may be a little different than expected, but I think it's worth sharing. After almost two years of trying, we were finally able to get pregnant. Nine to ten weeks later we received the news that no expectant parent wants to hear, 'We're sorry, there is no heartbeat and we have lost the baby.' It was terrible for both of us to hear this. This all happened in the middle of the Corona crisis in September 2020. We knew we desperately needed a vacation to relax and unwind. The only place that came to mind that could give us that feeling was Bucuti & Tara Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort Beach Resort, where we had celebrated our honeymoon. I didn't realize until we walked in to check in how badly my wife needed to reset this trip. She started crying tears of happiness. I asked her what was going on and she said she was so happy to be back in Bucuti. Bucuti & Tara was exactly what we needed to reset. A little over two months later, our daughter Myla was on the way. She is now nine months old and we could not be happier," shares Kevin Davis.

Meet Emersyn
"My husband and I honeymooned at Bucuti & Tara in August 2018 and welcomed our baby girl in May 2019! Exactly nine months after our honeymoon! We had a wonderful time together and we still talk about how Bucuti was our favorite vacation spot ever. We hope to return to Bucuti for our 10 year wedding anniversary. Our Bucuti baby Emersyn was born on May 11, 2019, and is now a big sister to her 5-month-old brother!" says Michele Breckel.

Meet Isabella
"I am always happy when I receive Bucuti news because it reminds me of our unforgettable honeymoon in 2013. Thanks to this special trip, our daughter Isabella came into our lives. A daughter is someone you laugh with, dream with and love with all your heart. We are very grateful to you for this and hope to come back to Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort one day," share Ana Maria Moreno and Oscar Mauricio Lopez Bogota, Colombia. Every honeymooning or vacationing couple is assigned a romance concierge upon making their reservation. This gives them plenty of time to plan the perfect romantic getaway blending relaxation, adventure, and memories of a lifetime. Nestled on a dreamy stretch of world-famous Eagle Beach, powdery white sand is kissed by turquoise water as palm trees dance with the sea breeze. Even Aruba's earliest visitors, Leatherback sea turtles, have picked Bucuti & Tara's beach each year to lay their eggs. FACTS OF ARUBA

Facts of Aruba 6 Oct - 12 Oct 2022

ARUBA TEMPERATURE:
In Aruba, the climate is tropical semi-arid, hot all year round: daytime temperatures hover around 30/33 degrees Celsius (86/91 °F) throughout the year; the air is muggy, but the wind tempers the heat. Aruba has more sunny days than any other Caribbean island.

GOLD MINES:
There are two gold mills on island. On the northern coast sits the abandoned Bushiribana gold mill that once processed ore from mines in the nearby hills during Aruba's gold rush of the nineteenth century. The second site, the Balashi Gold Mill, was built at the tip of the Spanish Lagoon. Remnants of this once bustling mill are still visible in the picturesque setting near the narrow canyon of rocks known as Frenchman's Pass. In 1824, gold was finally discovered in Aruba, and eventually, the industry produced more than 3 million pounds of gold.

DRINKING WATER:
Can you drink the water in Aruba? Yes, you can. Since there is no source of freshwater on the island, seawater is distilled in a saltwater desalination plant. The water produced is super pure.

Aruba Timeshare Association

ATSA Members Inspired and Moved by Kaplan Mobray

The members of the Aruba Timeshare Association, convened for a lunch-meeting at La Cabana Beach Resort & Casino with representatives of most of the island's Vacation Ownership properties, their financial controllers and a number of strategic partners in attendance. The Food & Beverage brigade of La Cabana Beach Resort & Casino hosted an exceptional lunch meeting with great food, and gracious service. ATSA President Luigi Heredia, Costa Linda Beach Resort, welcomed members and guests just before officially opening the meeting. He briskly went through a business agenda concerning the current issues challenging the industry such as the reportedly-upcoming Tax Reform,

Tourist Levy and Import Duties increases, as well as various labor issues and the labor shortage, afflicting the industry. For the August meeting Heredia had something special in mind for the forum. He was proud to introduce International Motivational Speaker Kaplan Mobray, Kaplan is "Recognized by Meetings and Conventions Magazine as one of the nation's top business speakers" Two-years ago, Mobray, an acclaimed author and career consultant was a guest motivational speaker at the ARDA conference, representing the vacation ownership and resort development industries, where he met Heredia, who enjoyed his presentation so much, he invited him for a series of talks at his resort,

Costa Linda Beach Resort, and for a special appearance at the ATSA meeting. Mobray's message to the ATSA members was both entertaining and poignant. With the help of a saxophone, a green glittery ball, colorful slides, fun music, and easy-to-grasp concepts, Mobray talked about the role of leadership in the creation of excellence. Excellence designed to maximize job satisfaction for employees as well as revenues for the business. The topic of the day was how leaders set the standards, especially in challenging times. Together with his audience Mobray tried to define the changes we have undergone and the challenges we encountered during the pandemic years, sharing his unique theories and practical strategies to help set the bar higher as far as service, inject energy and purpose in work-associates and apply effective tools for success, in hospitality. ATSA members left the room smiling, heads held high, knowing they have 'it' in them, the power to do more, give more and receive more, determined to drive their organizations and themselves to greater successes. At Costa Linda Beach Resort Mobray worked with smaller groups showcasing his dynamic personality and sharing his compelling life lessons. He encouraged employees to view themselves as an integral part of the business that builds, cures, directs, saves, creates and enable, multi-tasking and improving their personal brand and their leadership development. Association members are: Amsterdam Manor; Aruba Beach Club Resort; Caribbean Palm Village Resort; Casa Del Mar Beach Resort; Costa Linda Beach Resort; Divi Dutch Village Beach Resort; Divi Aruba Phoenix Beach Resort; Divi Village Golf and Beach Resort; Eagle Aruba Resort & Casino; La Cabana Beach Resort and Casino; La Quinta Beach Resort; Marriott Aruba Ocean Club; Marriot Aruba Surf Club; Paradise Beach Villas; and Playa Linda Beach Resort.

Locally brewed Chill is Now Aruba's #1 Beer

Locals and visitors certainly have no shortage of beer to choose from in Aruba, with dozens of brands importing beer varieties to the island, including most of the world's top-selling brands.

The competition is fierce, especially when you're a local brewery, but there's cause to celebrate: Chill beer, brewed at Aruba's national brewery, Balashi Brewery, is officially the island's top-selling beer.

The International Wine and Spirits Report for 2021 was recently published, with Chill, Aruba's crisp and refreshing beach beer, topping the list of beers sold island wide. Adding to this success is the brewery's original and signature brew, Balashi, garnering the third most in sales. The new kid on the block, Magic Mango—a fruit-driven specialty beer, accounted two additional market share points for the brewery.

The overall increase in demand for Balashi Brewery beer brands—including the addition of Magic Orange to the Magic portfolio launched earlier this year—has prompted an investment in brewing infrastructure, expanding capacity by 35% by year's end. Overall, Balashi Brewery now produces some 52% of beer consumed on the island (that's more than one out of every two beers consumed on the island)—an impressive achievement that Aruba can be proud of!

Benefit Fair & Expo at La Cabana Beach Resort

La Cabana Beach Resort & Casino recently hosted the first installment of a successful Benefit Fair & Expo.

The event was well organized and enjoyed great attendance. A second installment is already in the planning stages, for later in the year, designed to inform associates and encourage them to take better care of themselves in the present, while preparing wisely, for the future. According to Tessely Koolman, Director of HR, the fair provided an opportunity to showcase the benefits available to associates at the resort, so that they are more aware of existing services and possibilities.

Excellent work benefits, says Koolman, helps us create a dedicate team of associates, with decreases turnover and lowers absenteeism. Assistant General Manager Jessica Franken, adds that benefits are an important subject. Most of the company's mature associates are very interested in pension plans and savings for retirement. They are aware of the future and what it might bring, while members of the younger generation are open to discuss life insurance and extra accident protection. To facilitate the Benefits Fair & Expo I, La Cabana Beach Resort & Casino invited Sagicor, Citizens, and Pension Fund Tourism Sector Aruba to participate, all sharing the conference room. Each company had its own setup with uniformed professionals answering questions, and presenting programs options. The ballroom hosted talks throughout the morning, Sagicor at 9am, Citizen at 10pm and PFTSA at 11. The schedule was repeated in the afternoon.

The initial goal of providing more information, and making associates more aware of the great benefits La Cabana Beach Resort offers, was perfectly accomplished. According to a recent HR survey good benefits are as important as a generous salary, because they attract and retain the most skilled associates, which creates a strong business foundation. Associates care about a company that cares about them. Realizing this as a great opportunity for their business, the insurance companies delivered informative presentations and good offers for additional Medical Insurance, Accident & Death Insurance, Life Insurance, Pension Fund Savings, and more.

The day concluded with a raffle, featuring prizes such as Maggy's gift cards, Gasoline vouchers, and restaurant vouchers. A big thank you to Citizens Insurance Aruba, Sagicor Life and Pension Fund Tourism Sector Aruba and to all who were part of making the Benefits Fair & Expo I, a big success! La Cabana Beach Resort & Casino is mid-hosting 100 days of Celebrating U, an annual series of events lavishing associates with extra TLC, reminding them about healthier choices, the benefits of having a healthier lifestyle, the importance of mental health, and mindfulness.

Local in the spotlight: Leny Tulabot

BY TINA CAUSEY BISLICK - ARUBA.COM

Born, educated, and raised in the Philippines, Leny Tulabot embarked on a new life with her husband when they moved to the island of Aruba in the 80s.

In 1989, Leny began working for the Ling family. The Lings opened Ling & Sons Supermarket in 1965, which eventually became the island's first American-style grocery store, recognizing and catering to the growing tourism market from North America and stocking the shelves with products visitors were familiar with.

However, Leny's first role with the Lings was not in the supermarket; she was the nanny for Mrs. Ingrid Ling. But once Mrs. Ling learned of Leny's former career as an executive secretary in the Philippines, she began bringing home paperwork for her to assist with. Recognizing Leny's talent and versatility, she offered her a job at Ling & Sons.

Leny worked in multiple departments, including merchandising, cashier, and purchasing, eventually becoming Mrs. Ling's assistant and right hand. When the Lings sold the supermarket to the Dutch company Van Den Tweel Supermarket, Leny was named assistant store manager. When store ownership changed hands again in 2018 to the Jamaican company Van Den Tweel Caribbean Food Group, she was promoted to store manager. Leny credits the Lings for fostering a work environment that encouraged growth and instilled confidence in its employees. "They didn't just invest in the company; they invested in their employees and promoted a can-do mentality," shares Leny, which is still a part of the work culture at Ling & Sons today.

Leny also credits the wise move to cater to the North American market before other stores recognized the value of stocking familiar American products on the shelves. Aruba's timeshare owners—with full kitchens in their units—frequented Ling &

Sons for their vacation grocery needs. Their annual outing to shop was a reunion with many of the store's employees who have remained there for years. It's a tradition that still carries on today.

In addition to the large selection of American products, Ling & Sons is also known for its extensive line of ethnic products. "Aruba has so many different cultures and nationalities living and visiting here, so we want to ensure we are serving everyone's grocery needs," explains Leny. Leny is grateful for the opportunities that have come her way—as well as her four children—since her move to Aruba. She feels that between the foundation and reputation the Ling's built over the years, combined with the exciting evolution of the store—including a new Dutch-style bakery and coffee shop—that the legacy that began in 1965 will continue to see Ling & Sons as the island leader and trendsetter in the supermarket industry. She also wants to extend her sincere gratitude to the current directors/owners, her very supportive boss, her management team and more specially to her diligent staff.

Explore the best hiking trails in Aruba

BY XAYENNE TROMP - ARUBA.COM

Hiking down Aruba's dirt trails, bidden paths and prickly-pear littered plains might get hot. It definitely demands a bit of endurance.

But if you pack plenty of water and SPF, you'll be rewarded with stunning views of the island's natural wonders, blissful solitude and a dash of adventurous adrenaline.

The hiking options Aruba has to offer

Whether you're a seasoned adventurer or simply seeking a bit of exercise, Aruba has plenty of hiking trails to discover. When planning a vacation to the Caribbean, hiking may not be the first activity you think of (usually that's sunbathing on the beach, a very valid thought as well). Yet, the Caribbean islands are equipped with lush palm trees and cacti-filled plains, challenging rock formations and refreshing waterfalls. This makes hiking one of the better ways to explore the islands, Aruba included. Those seeking a challenge, some guidance, new friends or all of the above, will appreciate one of the many guided hiking tours offered on the island. Yet, with a selection of trails ranging from easy to advanced, hikers are encouraged to uncover the island by themselves. Aruba has hiking trails galore, so let's uncover the favorites.

Aruba's Hooiberg hike

Aptly titled, the Hooiberg hike takes you up Aruba's iconic Hooiberg—a bushy peak that looms tall over Oranjestad and Santa Cruz. One of Aruba's famed hiking trails (not to mention, one of the most popular hiking activities in Aruba), you can reach the summit of Hooiberg via a set of colorfully painted stairs. The climb will take you about half an hour and on clear days, you might even spot Venezuela. Yet, more daredevil paths are available to those who believe the stairs to be a piece of cake. Red dots and arrows indicate a small yet rocky hiking trail that allows you to part-walk-part-climb your way to the top. No Venezuela? No problem! You'll surely spot beautiful wildflowers and sensational cacti on your way. Perhaps, you'll even see a mountain goat.

Other hiking trails in Aruba

Once you've climbed the Hooiberg, you might be looking for your next Aruban hiking tour, trail or adventure. Thankfully, the island is full of them. Those with restless feet can move them towards the Conchi Natural Pool, a glistening calm body of water surrounded by rocks and the Caribbean sea. There are a few hikes to this natural pool of Aruba, one starting at Artikok National Park and leading alongside the island's cliffs, lush palm trees and saguaros (those cacti you see in westerns). A shorter hike leads you alongside white sandy beaches and lush wildflowers towards the Conchi Natural Pool in a bit over an hour. For the history buffs, there's a solitary dirt trail that leads towards a decommissioned gold mill in Bushiribana, reminiscent of Aruba's gold rush. Yet, hikers can likely keep themselves entertained for days amongst the natural wonders of Artikok National Park, or alongside the cliffs and beaches that circumvent the island. Choose your own adventure and don't forget to pack your blister plasters!

Best Caribbean island for hiking

If you're an avid hiker (or the adventurous type of traveler) and you're keen to vacation on one or more of the Caribbean islands, you'll likely wonder which is the best Caribbean island for hiking. To be fair, they're all great choices. But whereas the Twin Peaks of St. Lucia and the summits of the Dominican Republic make these destinations ideal for weathered mountain climbers, the welcoming trails of Aruba offer a more laid-back or family-friendly experience.

Although we've hopefully established hiking as an unmissable Caribbean experience, hikers might also find themselves attracted to more aquatic endeavors. Aruba isn't just a great destination for hiking, but one of the best Caribbean islands for snorkeling and enjoying white sandy beaches. You might even enjoy exploring the island via bike tour. In other words: if you vacation to Aruba, you'll never run out of things to do.
